

Jeanneau SO 509 "The King of Cool"

The Sun Odyssey 509 from Jeanneau was designed by the famous French naval architect Phillipe Briand. This sailing yacht combines timeless design, great seaworthiness and superior comfort making this model the flagship of Jeanneau's Sun Odyssey collection. This sailing yacht has an easily driven and moderate-displacement hull that is strong and very well built. Performance is one of the key concepts of this cruiser.

When he created the interior, Phillipe Briand focused on solid wood with matte varnish, light colors and indirect lighting. All the details bring together the functional and the aesthetic in a very smart and elegant manner. In the saloon there is a spacious dining area and settee with folding chart table. The galley is large and really well equipped for a pleasant cooking experience. The cabins are really generous, comfortable and they offer a feeling of coziness.
